

Warren County School District
Alternative Education for Disruptive Youth Executive Summary

Program Options

Current Program	Separate Building	BWMS & WAHS	Beacon Light	Evening Program
$167,670.50	$404,472.30	BWMS $122,501 WAHS $163,671	$550,522	$186,733.10
Capacity - 30 students	Capacity - 60 students	Capacity BWMS 10 WAHS 20	Capacity 60 students	Capacity 30
Access to professional staff & limited fiscal responsibility	Greatest opportunity for program growth	Access to professional staff	Program services established & successful	Separation of AEDY & regular student population
Inadequate availability to space	Fiscal responsibility	Imposition of program operation to two buildings	HQT not mandated	lack of rigorous educational services

It is the recommendation that the WCSD CIT Committee consider the 2nd option as the best possible educational setting for the Alternative Education for Disruptive Youth Program.