PLANNED INSTRUCTION

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course Title: English 9 Course Number: 00008

Course Prerequisites: Completion of the Middle Level Curricula

Course Description: Designed to prepare students for post-secondary career opportunities, this course provides instruction in the reading of fiction and nonfiction texts. Through active involvement in the course, students will utilize textual analysis to comprehend the connections between literature and real life. Students will write effectively and with a purpose appropriate to their audience, while understanding the essential types of writing — narrative, informative, and argumentative. Skills will be further expanded with students reading and responding to a wide variety of texts. Students will establish a proficiency of language conventions and mechanics. With a focus on career readiness, the class will aid students in developing a command of general, academic, and domain-specific vocabulary. Through various discussions and a required formal speech, students will be proficient public speakers. Using the Pennsylvania Common Core Standards and the Keystone Eligible Content as guides, the course will prepare students for the state standardized assessments. District marking period assessments are required.
