COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course Title: English 12 CP

Course Number: 00018

Course Prerequisites: Successful completion of required English 9, 10 and 11 courses

Course Description: This course is intended for college bound students and is designed to prepare students for post-secondary education and continues to build upon skills acquired in College Preparatory English 9, 10 and 11. This course provides instruction in the reading of fiction and nonfiction texts with a focus on genres, universal themes, character development and literary devices to build upon students' foundations for critical reading in future academic courses. Students will write effectively and with a purpose appropriate to their audience while incorporating the essential types of writing—narrative, informative and argumentative. Composition skills will be further expanded with students reading and responding to a wide variety of readings using academic analysis as well as writing a research paper. Students will establish a proficiency of language conventions and mechanics. With a focus on post-secondary education readiness, the class will aid students in developing a command of general, academic and domain-specific vocabulary. Through various discussion and a required formal speech, students will be proficient public speakers. District marking period assessments are required.
