Subject: Hal Hart

As you know, Hal Hart is scheduled for eye surgery tomorrow, September 27, and had planned on being available prior to your committee meeting to review the status of the study with individual board members. Due to an unforeseen medical condition requiring Hal to have a medical procedure today prior to tomorrow's surgery, Hal will be unavailable for today's meeting. Hal will be available to meet with board members prior to your next board meeting to update individual board members on the progress of the study. We apologize for being unable to attend this evening's meeting and look forward to reviewing the study with you at your October board meeting.

From Doug Rohrbaugh in Hal's absence
