JOB POSTING: 2006-2007 READING CURRICULUM COORDINATOR

Warren County School District

TO BE POSTED: NOVEMBER 14, 2006

EXPIRATION DATE: November 23, 2006

This is an announcement of an opening in the Warren County School District for a 2006-2007 Reading Curriculum Coordinator. This is a non-athletic supplemental contract with a yearly salary in accordance with the negotiated agreement between the Warren County School District and the Warren County Education Association. This position will be under the direction of the Assistant Superintendent. The position is for the remainder of the 2006-2007 school year. The primary functions of the 2006-2007 Reading Curriculum Coordinator are:

1. Serve as the District's reading curriculum expert;
2. Lead the District in reviewing the K-12 reading curriculum and developing a revised reading curriculum in collaboration with other curriculum coordinators;
3. Lead in selecting and recommending K-12 reading materials; and
4. Lead in designing appropriate K-12 reading instruction professional development activities.

Candidates for this position must have a masters degree in reading or curriculum development, experience teaching elementary reading and must be a professional employee of the Warren County School District.

Questions regarding this position should be addressed to Dr. J. Hugh Dwyer, Warren County School District Assistant Superintendent (723-6900). The anticipated start time for this position will be immediately.

Applicants desiring to bid for a position shall submit a written notice to Mr. John N. Werner, Supervisor of District-Wide Athletics and Co-Curricular Activities by 4:00 pm on the expiration date of the posting. Please include your address and telephone number.
