

Tax Incentive Rebate Program with Ellwood National Forge

Grant Overview: Each year, Ellwood National Forge participates in the state tax incentive rebate program. The program allows businesses to designate a portion of the taxes paid to the state to be used for local projects. The Warren County Career Center (WCCC) has received financial support through the program for the past three years.

In order to be considered for future funding, the WCCC must send a letter to Ellwood requesting support. If the request is approved, the WCCC will be contacted at a later date by the Pennsylvania Department of Education informing them of the amount of the award.

There is no guarantee of funding.

Amount of Award: Unknown at this time.

Due Date/Notification of Award: The administration anticipates notification in October/November 2010.

Alternatives if not Awarded: No programming is currently attached to potential funds from this program.

WCSD Resources Required: None.

Administrative Recommendation: The administration supports sending a letter to the Ellwood National Forge requesting that it consider providing funds to the Warren County Career Center through its participation in the Tax Incentive Rebate Program.
