

Module	Lesson	Description	Scored	Objective Code
.25 Credit	Credit Recovery
01:Evaluating and Communicating	Speaking Skills	This lesson focuses on strategies for developing informal and presentation speaking skills.	Yes	MSLA-21.1.1
	Listening Skills	In this lesson, students learn strategies for developing effective and critical listening skills.	Yes	MSLA-21.2.1
	Viewing Skills	This lesson provides strategies for developing viewing skills, including reading maps and graphs, evaluating information from media, and interpreting fine art.	Yes	MSLA-21.3.1
	Representing Skills	This lesson focuses on strategies for developing representing skills. Students learn about using visual aids, formatting, and multimedia.	Yes	MSLA-21.4.1
	01:Posttest
02:Vocabulary and Spelling	Developing Vocabulary	In this lesson, students learn strategies for developing their vocabulary skills by listening and reading carefully and using context clues.	Yes	MSLA-22.1.1
	Studying Words	This lesson focuses on study techniques, including the use of flashcards, writing sentences, and using reference aids such as a thesaurus, dictionary, or glossary to learn new vocabulary words.	Yes	MSLA-22.2.1
	Word Parts and Origins	In this lesson, students learn how to analyze word parts and word origins to define vocabulary.	Yes	MSLA-22.3.1
	Improving Your Spelling	In this lesson, students learn strategies for improving their spelling, including adding suffixes and prefixes, and using memory aids.	Yes	MSLA-22.4.1
	Basic Spelling Rules	This lesson shows students how to apply the basic rules of spelling, including how to form plurals and how to spell homophones.	Yes	MSLA-22.5.1
	02:Posttest
03:Reading Skills	Reading Tools	This lesson explains how to use textbook features, such as a table of contents, glossary, appendix, and index, as well as headings, captions, and other features. Students also learn about reading strategies and how to use graphic organizers.	Yes	MSLA-23.1.1
	Reading Nonfiction	In this lesson, students learn strategies for reading nonfiction critically, including understanding the main points and details, identifying the author's purpose, distinguishing facts from opinions, applying reasoning, and analyzing a text.	Yes	MSLA-23.2.1

Module	Lesson	Description	Scored	Objective Code
.25 Credit	Credit Recovery
	Reading Literary Writings	This lesson focuses on reading strategies for fiction, drama, poetry, and oral tradition tales, including point of view, setting, and conflict. Students also learn about characters, stage directions, a poem's speaker, as well as figurative language.	Yes	MSLA-23.3.1
	Reading Other Material	This lesson discusses selecting the materials that are best suited to the purpose for reading from a variety of different sources, such as magazines, newspapers, forms and applications, anthologies, electronic texts, and manuals.	Yes	MSLA-23.4.1
	03:Posttest
04:Study, References, and Tests	Basic Study Skills	In this lesson, students learn strategies for developing basic study skills, including creating a schedule, finding a suitable study area, keeping an assignment book, and taking notes.	Yes	MSLA-24.1.1
	Reference Skills	This lesson focuses on strategies for developing reference skills, such as using a library, periodicals and periodical indexes, dictionaries, and other print and electronic references.	Yes	MSLA-24.2.1
	Test-Taking Skills	This lesson provides strategies for taking tests, including answering objective, short-answer, and essay questions.	Yes	MSLA-24.3.1
	04:Posttest			