COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course Title: English 11 Honors

Course Number: 00016

Course Prerequisites: Successful completion of a required Honors 10 English course; however, a student who successfully completes English 10 College Preparatory may enter the course with teacher recommendation

Course Description: This course is the second level of a three-year program ending with Advanced Placement English Literature and Composition in grade 12 or a dual enrollment program. Based on American literature from the Puritans to Arthur Miller, the course has its base in a cross section of literature including letters, journals, novels, speeches, poetry, and plays. This course provides instruction in the analysis of literature with a focus on genres, universal themes, character development, and literary devices to give each student a foundation for critical reading in future academic courses. Students will write effectively and with a purpose appropriate to their audience, while incorporating the essential types of writing – analytical, reflective, informative, and argumentative. Composition skills will be further expanded with students reading and responding to a wide variety of readings. Students will establish a mastery of language conventions and mechanics. Through various discussions and a required formal speech, students will be proficient public speakers. Students choosing this course should be advised that the reading load is heavy and a term paper is required.
