

ADDENDUM

THIS ADDENDUM, made and entered into as of the 9th day of January, 2023, by and between the Women's Care Center (WCC-W) and the Warren County School District (WCSD).

WHEREAS, the parties hereto previously entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) dated September 9, 2022, and approved by the Warren County School District's Board of School Directors on October 10, 2022 (hereinafter referred to as the "MOU"); and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to amend the MOU to reflect that Mrs. Caryn Ryan, PE staff at the Sheffield Middle/High School and the STRIVE teachers at Beaty Middle School in Warren County has requested REAL Essentials Starting Point (RESP) facilitation by WCC-W staff in the 7th grade health classes.

NOW THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound thereby, the parties hereto agree that REAL Essentials Starting Point (RESP) facilitation shall be provided by WCC-W staff in the 7th grade health classes at the Sheffield Middle/High School, as follows:

1. Women's Care Center of Warren (WCC-W) will be responsible for:

- Implementing live in-person RESP program at no fee to the WCSD or WCSD students in 7th grade Health classes, along with the 7th-8th grade STRIVE students. It is understood that neither the WCC-W nor any representative or facilitatory of the WCC-W shall be provided any educational records that contain personally identifiable student information and that are protected under FERPA. The WCC-W agrees that neither the WCC-W nor any representative or facilitatory of the WCC-W shall disclose the identity of any student participating in the program, except as required by PA mandated reporter laws.

The additional bullet points will remain the same as stated in the MOU.

2. In collaboration, Warren County School District (WCSD) will commit to:

- Schedule access to Warren County School District's 7th grade students for REAL Essentials programs by WCC-W staff. This access will be in the classroom setting as described above for the amount of time agreed upon by the WCC-W Education Coordinator and WCSD teachers and curriculum directors during the 2022-2023 school year.

The additional bullet points will remain the same as stated in the MOU.

3. All other terms and conditions of the MOU shall remain in full force and effect.

4. Each person signing this Addendum represents and warrants that he or she is duly authorized and has legal capacity to execute and deliver this Addendum. Each party represents and warrants to the other that the execution and delivery of the Addendum and the performance of such party's obligations hereunder have been duly authorized and that the Addendum is a valid and legal agreement binding on such party and enforceable in accordance with its terms.

The parties hereto, intending to be legally bound hereby, have caused this Addendum to be executed the day and year first above written.
