Course Title: Honors English 10

Course Number: 00013

Course Prerequisites: Successful completion of English 9 college preparatory course and teacher recommendation

Course Description: This course is the first of a three-year program ending with Advanced Placement

English Literature and Composition in grade 12 or a dual enrollment program. Based on world literature, the course takes a thematic approach to literature and will examine the philosophy and history of the times. Students choosing this course should be prepared to do extensive reading and writing. This course provides instruction in the analysis of literature with a focus on genres, universal themes, character development, and literary devices to give each student a foundation for critical reading in future academic courses. Students will write effectively and with a purpose appropriate to their audience, while incorporating the essential types of writing –analytical, reflective, informative, and argumentative. Composition skills will be further expanded with students reading and responding to a wide variety of texts.

Students will establish a mastery of language conventions and mechanics.

Through various discussions and a required formal speech, students will be proficient public speakers. Using the Pennsylvania Common Core Standards as a guide, the course will prepare students for the state standardized assessments.
