PLANNED INSTRUCTION

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Course Title: English 11

Course Number: 00014

Course Prerequisites: Successful completion of required English 9 and English 10

Course Description: Designed to prepare students for post-secondary career opportunities, this course provides instruction in the reading of fiction and nonfiction texts and continues to build upon skills acquired in English 10. English 11 will explore the American heritage by reading a wide range of works in American literature. A thematic approach will establish experiences common to American life. Through active involvement in the course, students will utilize textual analysis to comprehend the connections between literature and real life. Students will write effectively and with a purpose appropriate to their audience, while incorporating the essential types of writing – narrative, informative, and argumentative. Students will establish a mastery of language conventions and mechanics. With a focus on career readiness, the class will aid students in developing a command of general, academic, and domain-specific vocabulary. Through various discussions and a required formal speech, students will be proficient public speakers. Using the Pennsylvania Core Standards as a guide, this course will prepare students for the state standardized assessments.
