

Dr. Norbert Kennerknecht
Director of Facilities
Warren County School District

June 24, 2021

Dear Mr. Kennerknecht,

Siemens Industry, Inc., Siemens APOGEE Building Automation and Energy Management Products are sold, installed and serviced by factory owned and authorized branch offices only. No other parties are trained and/or authorized to install or service these products. Siemens has the proprietary rights associated with the equipment and software, and Siemens is the only provider for the services covered by the contract.

Unauthorized servicing of these products can cause warranties to become null and void.

If further clarification of this policy is needed, please feel free to contact me at our local Siemens Industry, Inc. office at any time.

With Highest Regards,

Bill Everson
Service Account Executive
